

Dr. Markus Heyn

President of Diesel Systems, Robert Bosch GmbH

December 16, 2014

RB Wä

Dr. Markus Heyn has been President of Diesel Systems, Robert Bosch GmbH, since January 2012. Prior to that, he was a member of the executive management board with responsibility for Passenger Car Diesel Systems.

Born in Aachen (Germany) on December 9, 1964, Dr. Markus Heyn is married and has four children. After completing his Abitur (final exams), he attended RWTH Aachen University, where he completed his doctorate in Mechanical Engineering and Business Organization.

Career stages in the Bosch Group

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 1999 | Started his career at Robert Bosch GmbH as a consultant in the corporate office for coordinating productivity and process optimization |
| 2001 | Department Manager at the Feuerbach plant with responsibility for producing parts for distributor injection pumps |
| 2003 | Consultant to the production manager at Diesel Systems |
| 2004 | Technical Plant Manager at the Jihlava plant in Czech Republic |
| 2007 | Head of the Passenger Car business unit at Diesel Systems |
| 2009 | Member of the executive management board at Diesel Systems with responsibility for Passenger Car Diesel Systems |
| 2012 | President of Diesel Systems |