

Dr. Tanja Rückert

Member of the board of management, Robert Bosch GmbH

July 1, 2025

RB IEh

Tanja Rückert has been a member of the board of management of Robert Bosch GmbH since January 1, 2023, with responsibility for digital business and services. This includes the following functions and services: The service area Bosch Digital, IT-system landscapes and digitalization, and cyber security. She is responsible for the Industrial Technology business area with the Drive and Control Technology business unit and the Bosch Connected Industry and Bosch Manufacturing Solutions product areas. In addition, she is responsible for the Software and Digital Solutions business unit.

Rückert is also responsible for the business in the “Europe 1” region (North and East Europe), as well as in the “Europe 2” region, which includes Benelux, France, Greece, Italy, Portugal and Spain, and Switzerland.

Tanja Rückert was born in Bad Windsheim, Germany, on December 27, 1969. She is married and has two children. After leaving school, she studied chemistry at the Julius Maximilians University of Würzburg in Germany and at Swansea University in the United Kingdom. She completed her doctorate at the University of Regensburg in Germany.

Career stages

1997

Joins SAP consulting services, responsible for implementation of SAP software and for management of customer projects – SAP SE, Walldorf, Germany

Up to mid-2018

Various roles and functions at SAP, including software development, software development process, quality management, governance and production, security, global business planning and execution, COO human resources, processes, and IT – SAP SE, Walldorf, Germany ends her career at SAP as executive vice president and COO products and innovation, as well as president IOT and digital supply chain – SAP SE, Palo Alto (CA), USA

Bosch

- July 2018 Joins the Bosch Group as president of the Building Technologies division, Grasbrunn, Germany
- July 2021 Chief digital officer of the Bosch Group – Robert Bosch GmbH, Gerlingen, Germany
- January 2023 Member of the board of management, Robert Bosch GmbH