

Dr. Frank Meyer

Member of the board of management, Robert Bosch GmbH

July 1, 2025

RB ak

Dr. Frank Meyer has been a member of the board of management of Robert Bosch GmbH since February 1, 2024. He is responsible for the Bosch Energy and Building Technology business sector with its Building Technologies and Home Comfort Group divisions and Smart Home subsidiary. He is also responsible for Bosch's business in Japan and for central quality management at Robert Bosch GmbH.

Born in Dorsten, Germany, in 1978, Frank Meyer is married and has two children. In Germany, he studied physics and mathematics at RWTH Aachen University and the Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich. He also studied physics in France at the University of Paris-Orsay, and in the U.K. at Imperial College London. In 2006, he earned his doctorate in physics at the Max Planck Institute in Munich. In 2023, Frank Meyer graduated from Harvard Business School after successfully completing the Advanced Management Program.

Career stages

2006	Principal (previously Project Leader and Consultant), member of TMT (Technology, Media, and Telecommunications) and sales and marketing practice area, Boston Consulting Group
2012	Director of strategy, M&A, and new business development, Vodafone Deutschland
2015	Director of commercial management B2B, Vodafone Deutschland
2016	Senior vice president B2C & e-mobility global, E.ON SE and CEO E.ON Solutions GmbH From 2016 to 2019, also chief innovation officer, E.ON SE, and from 2017 to 2018, member of the executive committee of E.ON Energie Deutschland
2021	CEO, E.ON Italia
As of February 2024	Member of the board of management, Robert Bosch GmbH