

Dr. Markus Forschner
Member of the board of management,
Robert Bosch GmbH

January 1, 2022

RB De

Dr. Markus Forschner has been a member of the board of management of Robert Bosch GmbH since January 1, 2022. As Bosch Group CFO, he is responsible for finance and accounting, controlling, planning, mergers and acquisitions, taxes, and performance management. In addition, he is responsible for purchasing and logistics, real estate and facilities, and the corporate units Global Business Services and Global Real Estate. Moreover, his area of responsibility also includes the company's business operations in Europe and Turkey.

Born in Villingen-Schwenningen in 1967, Markus Forschner is married and has two children. Forschner graduated from the University of Stuttgart in computer science and business administration in 1993. Following a research stay at MIT in Boston, he was awarded a doctorate by Stuttgart University's institute for R&D management in 1996.

Career stages in the Bosch Group

1996	Commercial trainee program
1998	Senior expert, division controlling
1999	Vice President Controlling, Starter Motors and Generators division
2001	Commercial plant manager and head of hot-water boilers business unit
2004	Executive Vice President Commercial Affairs, Thermotechnology division
2005	Senior vice president, corporate department for planning and controlling
2007	Deputy head of corporate department for planning and controlling
2013	Executive Vice President Commercial Affairs, Car Multimedia division
2015	Member of the executive board of Bosch Rexroth AG, with responsibility for commercial affairs, purchasing, logistics, and human resources
January 2022	Member of the board of management, Robert Bosch GmbH

